

Q:

I have a bachelor's degree in mathematics. How do I get my teaching credential?

A:

Congratulations on having your degree! Your next step is to get a Preliminary Single Subject Teaching Credential. In three easy steps, you can research teacher preparation programs, consider factors impacting your decision, and find the specific program that's best for you.

Learn More!

- Get a user-friendly overview about preparing to teach math.
- Make your personalized Career Plan for becoming a math teacher!

www.teachcalifornia.org