

Q:

I'm a credentialed teacher from out of state. How can I teach in California?

A:

California has reciprocity agreements with most states. First, check with your state's credentialing department to see if it has an agreement with California. You may be able to apply for a California teaching credential. Also, visit the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing website to find more information.

California Needs Teachers!

Learn how to find a teaching job in California at www.teachcalifornia.org/Steps/Jobs

www.teachcalifornia.org